

Fordley Primary School

Our Written Statement of Behaviour Principles

- Every pupil understands they have the right to feel safe, valued and respected, and learn free from the disruption of others
- All pupils, staff and visitors are free from any form of discrimination
- Staff and volunteers set an excellent example to pupils at all times
- Pupils are encouraged to take responsibility for their behaviour and reflect on their actions
- The behaviour policy is understood by pupils and staff, and any rewards, consequences or sanctions are applied consistently
- The exclusions policy explains that exclusions will only be used as a last resort, and outlines the processes involved in permanent and fixed-term exclusions
- Families are informed of behaviour incidents to foster good relationships between the school and pupils' home life
- The governing body also emphasises that violence or threatening behaviour will not be tolerated in any circumstance

This written statement of behaviour principles is reviewed and approved by the governors Standards Committee annually.
